

Chemical and Waste Management

Industry, by its very nature of activity, produces significant quantities of chemical waste at various stages of production/manufacturing processes. In addition to industrial chemical wastes, substantial quantities of wastes are produced by commercial and domestic activities.

EIU programmes on Chemical waste management include awareness raising campaigns, documentation of relevant data and dissemination of chemical waste management measures to all sectors of Uganda.